0 of 0 review helpful outdated not specifically tailored to teens By Andreas H ouml lzl I can t see why this book is especially targeting teenagers The content follows the standard way of introducing HTML elements and features one by one But why should teens care about forms for example There are better more modern and more goal oriented introductions to HTMLs out there The book is pretty old and references Web Design for Teens focuses on the creation and design of Web sites Using HTML and some basic Web design programs the book teaches the reader how to skillfully go from a blank slate such as in Notepad to a professionally designed Web site As more and more teenagers and preteens learn about Web sites early in their school years there is clearly a market for this teen focused book Schools are teaching HTML and Web design as early as fifth and sixth grade Star Part 1 Introduction to Web Design 1 Getting to Know Web Sites 2 Welcome to Design 3 What in a Web Site Part 2 Coding in HTML 4 Getting Comfortable with HTML 5 Working with Images and Text 6 Hyperlinks Lists and Forms 7 Tables and Multimedia 8 Casc
